

i cant help but feel that the advantages of mass consumption and inspiration far outweigh personal gains of artists who will already benefit for half a century of protection. thus i am AGAINST extending copyright laws. thank you. name and address available upon request.

"not so much a myth, but more like a legend..... the last of the infamous international playboys"