

Dear Mr Gower,

I am contacting you to ask you to re-consider the proposals to extend the copyright laws to 95 years from the present 50 years.

If these new proposals go ahead, we, and future generations will be denied the wealth of our musical traditions, and this cannot be fair. The law is quite adequate as it stands, and I ask you please not to alter this.

Yours faithfully,

David R. Jessop