Explanation of Accounting Officer responsibilities

In accordance with the Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 the Treasury has made the following Accounting Officer appointments for the Requests for Resources within this Estimate.

Request for Resources 1 Sir Gus O'Donnell, Permanent Head of the Cabinet Office

Sir Gus O'Donnell, as the Accounting Officer (AO) of the Cabinet Office has personal responsibility for the the proper presentation of the Cabinet Office: Civil Superannuation's resource accounts as prescribed in legislation or by the Treasury and their transmission to the Comptroller and Auditor General. The AO as the permanent head in addition to the responsibilities for an assigned RfR, remains in general overall charge of the Cabinet Office.

The responsibilities of an Accounting Officer are set out in Annex 4.1 of Government Accounting. In essence these responsibilities include a personal responsibility for the propriety and regularity of the public finances for which they are answerable; for the keeping of proper accounts; for prudent and economical administration; for the avoidance of waste and extravagance; and for the efficient and effective use of all available resources. In addition, the Accounting Officer must ensure that there is a sound system of internal control to support the achievement of the organisation's policies, aims, and objectives; and should regularly review the effectiveness of that system.
