

I am writing to express my support of those who wish to keep the limit to 50 years. I do so in support of individuals who wish to enjoy the music of artists whose fame will not bring huge profits to music companies.

Regards,

Stanley Smith