

Dear HM Treasury,

As an author who holds copyrights to several of his own books, I wish to register my opposition to the proposed extension of copyright currently under consideration. If the extension goes ahead not only will these recordings not be reissued commercially by the companies that would own them again, but most of them will not be saved in any form for posterity.

All best wishes,

R. Dixon Smith