

I - IDENTIFICATION AND DESCRIPTION OF SEALED EXHIBIT

On receiving the above assignment, Dr Pépin went to the Institut Médico-Légal, 2 Place Mazas, 75012 Paris, on 4 September 1997 and was present when Dr Campana took samples from Henri Paul's body in the presence of the Judicial Police Officer and Mr Stéphan, the Examining Magistrate.

SEALED EXHIBIT No TWO

This was a brown envelope containing a plastic bottle closed with wax seals, the label being stuck to the envelope and containing the following particulars:

Police Headquarters
Judicial Police Department
Criminal Investigation Department
Case of Martinez and others
Charged with manslaughter
Nature of offence
Victim
Nature of object

SEALED EXHIBIT No TWO

blood sample left femoral

Judicial Police Officer
Stamp and signature of Judicial Police Officer

The seal was intact.

The deglycosyded transferrine was measured at the Laboratoire Ruffié, 30 Allée de Tourny, 33000 Bordeaux.