

QUESTION TO THE WITNESS REES JONES: Does he remember an incident with some journalists?

ANSWER: I don't remember, I don't understand the question.

QUESTION TO THE WITNESS REES JONES: Was there an incident with the journalists at any stage?

ANSWER: Between two cars, you mean?

QUESTION TO THE WITNESS REES JONES: No, generally, verbally.

ANSWER: Yes, it's true, that did take place.

QUESTION TO THE WITNESS REES JONES: Can you elaborate?

ANSWER: It was not us, it was a man who looks after the apartment. He stood in front of a photographer and pushed this photographer and the photographer got angry and I tried to calm things down.

QUESTION TO THE WITNESS REES JONES: Does he remember how Mr PAUL was that evening, bearing in mind that he knew him previously?

[signed]
[signed]

[signed]
[signed]

[signed]
[signed]