

D6983

Again in the course of his work, he apparently had sight of the existence of an informant, identified by a code consisting of a "P" followed by numbers, described as a Frenchman working in the security section of the Ritz Hotel. Mr TOMLINSON does not claim, however, that it was Henri PAUL.

The witness also states that an English photo journalist was also an informant. He did not give his name and in no way claimed that the person concerned was in Paris at the time of the accident.

Finally, in a letter that he sent to us recently, Mr TOMLINSON refers to the presence en poste at the Embassy of a Mr SPEARMAN,
