KENSINGTON PALACE

July: 27th 1997.

Dearest Dodi,

Seldom has this particular lady ever been lost for words, but the events of the last twenty four hours has left her speechless!

Your organisation & sense of detail is enormously impressive & I thought I was the one with vision!!

I am absolutely thrilled with this beautiful new addition upon my wrist & I spend many a moment just staring down on my watch in awe & am so touched to have been thought of.

I have always longed to stay at the Ritz, since my Father loved the hotel & now, of course, I see exactly why & what with a wonderful dinner too. What can a girl say?!!

Except perhaps to borrow a quote that was issued at 3.00 am on Sunday
