THE LAW SOCIETY'S PERFORMANCE & PROGRESS AGAINST THE TARGETS & PLAN DURING THE PERIOD 1 APRIL 2007 TO 31 MARCH 2008

SUMMARY OF PERFORMANCE SEPTEMBER 2007

• Impartiality • Transparency • Efficiency • Effective remedy •

Appointed under the Access to Justice Act 1999 as an independent regulator working with the Law Society on behalf of the consumer to improve standards in complaints handling

AIM OF THE LEGAL SERVICES COMPLAINTS COMMISSIONER

The aim of the Legal Services Complaints Commissioner (the Commissioner) is to regulate the complaints handling arm of the Law Society to help ensure that it handles complaints about its members effectively and efficiently. The Commissioner's website address is www.olsc.gov.uk

APPROACH TO SETTING TARGETS

In order to focus the Law Society on key areas for improvement, the Commissioner requested that it provide a complaints handling Plan (the Plan) showing how it would deliver performance improvements in its complaints handling system and processes over the period 1 April 2007 to 31 March 2008. In relation to the Law Society's performance, she also set targets in three key areas:

- Timeliness – to improve the speed with which complaints are handled by the Law Society;
- Quality of decisions – to improve the quality and consistency of complaints handling by the Law Society; and
- Delivery of the Plan – to implement the agreed plan for complaints handling.

The targets set by the Commissioner included areas where, if performance was improved, the Law Society could move closer towards delivering an effective and efficient complaints handling service.

The Law Society agreed to the targets set by the Commissioner and included these within its Plan for the period 1 April 2007 to 31 March 2008. A full copy of this Plan along with details of the Law Society's complaints handling organisation can be found on the following websites www.lawsociety.org.uk www.sra.org.uk www.legalcomplaints.org.uk

In setting the targets the Commissioner took into account the Law Society's performance and what it could realistically aim to achieve. The Commissioner considered a range of information, including monthly performance information from the Law Society, the requirement for broader improvements, the results of a benchmarking study conducted by her Office of other complaints handling organisations, and the findings of audits undertaken by her Office in 2005 and 2006. This information demonstrated that the Law Society needed to take further action to improve its systems and processes, including the consistent application of its own policies and procedures when dealing with complaints as well as delivering more broader improvements, for example improving accessibility to its services.

At the end of the Plan year, 31 March 2008, the Commissioner will assess whether the Law Society has handled complaints in accordance with its Plan. If she decides that it has not, the Commissioner can levy a penalty on the Law Society of up to one million pounds.

LAW SOCIETY'S COMPLAINTS HANDLING OPERATION

The Law Society handles complaints about solicitors concerning service or conduct issues, from consumers of legal services. For the purpose of this report, "complaints" includes both complaints in which solicitors' clients seek redress, and complaints about solicitors' conduct, whether made by solicitors' clients or by third parties. The term "complaint" does not include enquiries, (this is where the Law Society provides information, clarification, or an explanation of jurisdiction), these are counted separately.

In January 2006, the Law Society re-structured its organisation into 3 separate functions:

- the Law Society is responsible for representing solicitors;
- the Legal Complaints Service (LCS) is responsible for handling the majority of client related redress complaints about the service provided by solicitors in England and Wales to consumers; and
- the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) is responsible for regulatory and disciplinary matters; setting and maintaining standards; handling complaints that allege misconduct against solicitors

MONITORING THE LAW SOCIETY'S PROGRESS AGAINST THE TARGETS

This summary report provides information to show how the Law Society is performing against each of the target areas included within its Complaints Handling Plan.

Performance against the timeliness target areas, the Legal Services Ombudsman's satisfaction rating, and delivery of the Plan is monitored via monthly management information reports provided by the Law Society. Progress and performance against some of the quality targets can only be measured by the Commissioner's Office undertaking an audit of case files.

FINAL ASSESSMENT OF THE LAW SOCIETY'S PERFORMANCE AGAINST ITS PLAN

The work outlined in the Plan is aimed at bringing the Law Society's complaints handling service closer to an effective and efficient level of performance and achieving the targets set by the Commissioner.

The Commissioner has the power to levy a penalty against the Law Society if it fails to handle complaints in accordance with its Plan. In determining whether the Law Society has handled complaints in accordance with its Plan, the Commissioner will take all relevant factors into account at the end of the Plan year, 31 March 2008.

The Law Society performance against its Plan will be assessed through the critical analysis of Management Information, Key Performance Indicators, audit findings, meetings with the Law Society, written correspondence and the outcomes of any visits to the Law Society.
