

COPE 2

07/01/10

Hello

May I put my suggestion on record?

In my opinion MPs should be paid a commensurate salary to be determined independently. What arrangements they then make for travel between their constituency and Westminster, for their accommodation in their constituency and in the vicinity of Westminster should be at their discretion and charge. Office staff and researchers should be paid directly by Parliament.

Kind regards

Hilary Smith

--

Hilary A Smith BA MPhil

