Please note this is not a definitive list and is for guidance only. We would ask you to bear in mind that the length of time needed for a witness to complete his or her evidence may vary so it may not be possible to hear all those scheduled to appear in any given week. Those witnesses who are not called will be rescheduled.

There may also be changes due to witnesses being unable to attend owing to unforeseen circumstances. In addition, for security reasons, not all those due to be called will feature in the advance witness lists.

General Guidance

The hearings are held at the Guildhall, Londonderry. The media are welcome to attend and 40 seats in the lower public gallery are reserved for this purpose. There is also a Media Centre at 1, Guildhall Street. The reserved seating and Media Centre are strictly for the use of journalists only and admission is by media pass / swipe card for which accreditation is required.

The law of contempt applies to the Tribunal and although this is not a trial, for the purposes of reporting, journalists may wish to regard it as such.
