

Watch this place^o East Beach Café, Littlehampton

East Beach Café, designed by Thomas Heatherwick, a celebrated artist and designer, arrived in the Sussex resort of Littlehampton in 2007. Made out of steel designed to rust to a deep brown colour, the building has been described as a work of modern art.

To introduce young people to more inspiring places, visit www.cabe.org.uk/case-studies

What's special about this place?

- inspired by the contours of weather beaten driftwood, the building relates to its seaside location, more than the traditional architecture of the town
- the striking design has raised the profile of Littlehampton – the café was voted as one of the 10 coolest places to visit by Vogue magazine.

Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment