

(c)

WITNESS STATEMENT OF ANTHONY IMOSSİ

IN THE MATTER OF LEVESON INQUIRY INTO THE CULTURE, PRACTICES and

ETHICS OF THE PRESS

This is the exhibit marked (c) referred to in the witness statement of

ANTHONY IMOSSİ:

| | | |
|---------------------------|---|----------------|
| SIGNED by the said |) | |
| ANTHONY IMOSSİ |) | |
| |) | |
| This |) | Anthony Imossi |
| day of September 2011 |) | |

Pre 2008

1. THE CODE OF ETHICS

- 1.1 To perform all professional duties in accordance with the highest moral principles and never to be guilty of conduct which will bring reproach upon the profession of private investigation and The Association of British Investigators.
- 1.2 To verify the credentials of clients, and that they have lawful and moral reasons to instruct an investigation
- 1.3 To respect the privacy of clients and their lawful confidences.
- 1.4 To ensure that services are adequately secure to protect privacy and to guard against inadvertent disclosure of private information.
- 1.5 To ensure that all employees or other persons paid to assist an investigation, adhere to this Code of Ethics and to accept responsibility therefore.
- 1.6 To conduct all investigations within the bounds of legality, morality and professional ethics.
- 1.7 To respect the best interest of clients by maintaining the highest standard of proficiency and reporting to clients all the facts ascertained whether they be advantageous or detrimental and nothing be withheld from clients save by dictates of law.
- 1.8 To work with all other members of the Association toward the achievement of the highest professional objectives of truth, accuracy and prudence.
- 1.9 To attend to all instructions within the principles of the prevailing privacy legislation and in particular if controlling personal data to be so Notified with the Information Commissioner.

Pre 2005

Code of Ethics

We Pledge

To perform all professional duties in accordance with the highest moral principles and never be guilty of conduct which will bring reproach upon the profession of the private investigator and The Association of British Investigators.

To verify the credentials of clients and that they have lawful and moral reasons to instruct an investigation.

To respect the privacy of clients and their lawful confidence.

To ensure that services are adequately secure to protect privacy and to guard against inadvertent disclosure of private information.

To ensure that all employees and other persons paid to assist an investigation adhere to this Code of Ethics and to accept responsibility thereof.

To conduct all investigations within the bounds of legality, morality and professional ethics.

To respect the best interest of our clients by maintaining the high standard of proficiency and reporting to our clients all the facts ascertained whether they be advantageous or detrimental, and nothing be withheld from the clients save by the dictates of law.

To work together with all members of our Association towards the achievement of the highest professional objectives of the Association and to observe the precepts of truth, accuracy and prudence.

(d)

WITNESS STATEMENT OF ANTHONY IMOSSO

IN THE MATTER OF LEVESON INQUIRY INTO THE CULTURE, PRACTICES and

ETHICS OF THE PRESS

This is the exhibit marked (d) referred to in the witness statement of
ANTHONY IMOSSO:

| | | |
|---------------------------|---|----------------|
| SIGNED by the said |) | |
| ANTHONY IMOSSO |) | |
| |) | |
| This |) | Anthony Imossi |
| day of September 2011 |) | |