4.1 SCREENER QUESTIONS: VEHICLES AND BICYCLES

[ASK ALL]

SHOW RESPONDENT LIFE EVENTS CALENDAR

Before asking you about crimes or incidents that may have happened to you over the last 12 months I'd like to give you a calendar. I'd like you to keep this in front of you when answering the next part of the interview.

If at any stage you are unsure about whether or not something happened in the last 12 months you may find looking at the calendar will help to prompt your memory.

INTERVIEWER: MARK OFF THE CORRECT 12 MONTH REFERENCE PERIOD ON THE CALENDAR, THAT IS SINCE THE FIRST OF [DATE] UNTIL PRESENT, AND HAND TO RESPONDENT

[ASK ALL]

I'm now going to ask you about things that may have happened over the last 12 months, that is since the first of [DATE], in which you may have been the victim of a crime or offence. This doesn't mean that crimes that may have happened before this time are unimportant, but we want to build a picture of just the last 12 months so we can measure how people's experience of crime changes from one year to the next.

I am only concerned with incidents that have happened to YOU PERSONALLY [or to people who are NOW members of your household].

I don't just want to know about serious incidents – I want to know about small things too.

The next few questions are about sexual offences, which can affect both men and women. Although the questions may seem quite intrusive they are important in helping the Home Office to understand more about these types of crime. If the questions upset you in any way you can either ask the interviewer for help or pass over them by pressing ‘Don’t wish to answer’. However, we hope you will continue to the end.

Please remember that all your answers are strictly confidential and your information will be grouped with others in a way that does not identify individuals.

The next questions are about sexual assaults such as rape and attempted rape or being forced into some other sexual act when you were not capable of consent or when you made it clear you did not want to. These crimes affect both women and men.

The language used in the next few questions is very explicit and direct and it may seem very intrusive to you. We need to ask about this level of detail to help classify the exact type of sexual assault that people may have experienced. This helps the Home Office to better understand and deal with crimes of this nature. Remember if the questions upset you in any way you can either ask the interviewer for help or simply pass over them by pressing ‘Don’t wish to answer’.

We will ask first some questions about actual sexual assaults and then about attempted assaults.

19.1 PSYCHOLOGICAL ABUSE

Thank you for completing these questions.

The last questions are about things that might have happened to you during your childhood. By your childhood we mean when you were under the age of 16 years old. Please try and think about your entire childhood as you answer these questions.

The questions are about experiences you may have suffered as a child including psychological, physical and sexual abuse. Please include anything that you have already told us in other sections of the survey if it happened to you when you were under the age of 16.

If the questions upset you in any way you can either ask the interviewer for help or pass over the questions by pressing the ‘Don’t wish to answer’ key. However, we hope you will continue to the end.
