

Source 1

London Corresponding Society handbill, 1793
(Catalogue ref: TS 24/3/34)

As you study the source, ask yourself:

1. What did the London Corresponding Society want?
2. What method did they use?

Source 1

REFORM IN PARLIAMENT.

LONDON CORRESPONDING Society,

APRIL 11, 1793.

A

P E T I T I O N

TO BE PRESENTED TO THE HONORABLE
The HOUSE of COMMONS,

PRAYING for a Radical Reform in the Representation of the PEOPLE; now lies for the Reception of Signatures at the following Places. viz.

Mr. RIDGEWAY's Bookfeller, York-street,
St James'-square.

Mr. HARDY, No. 9, Piccadilly near the Hay-market.

Mr. LAMBATH's, No. 3, St. George's Mall, near the Dog-and-Duck.

Mr. EATON's, Bookfeller, No. 81, Bishopsgate-Without.

Mr. SPENCE's, Bookfeller, No. 8, Little-Turnfile, Holborn.

The Office of the Morning Post, Blake-Court,
Catharine-Street, Strand,

And the Office of the Courier, No. 38, Charing-Cross.

* * * Near 3000 have already signed.

No Expence attends Signing.

D. Guam