warm Welcome

Conference and Training Venue

The Hawkhills is an elegant stately home which has been extensively and sympathetically modernised. Set within a 240 acre estate, the site boasts magnificent landscaped gardens, woods and parkland.

Our friendly welcome and idyllic setting combine to create the perfect venue for your corporate training event or conference.

Since 1989 we have offered our clients exceptional, first class residential and non-residential training and conference facilities. The growing number of returning customers from both the UK and overseas, are testament to this.

We take pride in our willingness and ability to meet your needs and endeavour to exceed your expectations. Our friendly, professional team will work closely with you to ensure your event is a success.

The peace and tranquillity of the Hawkhills provides a conducive and productive learning environment away from the hustle and bustle of your busy working life. Beautiful, comfortable surroundings, the convenience of modern technology and the highest levels of service ensure this is an ideal venue at very competitive prices.
