This form is to be used for applications made on or after 6 April 2010.

You also need the separate guidance documents listed below, which you should read before making your application:

- COA guidance notes (version 04/2010)
- UKBA photograph guidance (version 04/2009)

If you do not already have these documents, you can get them from our website at www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk

Our application forms change periodically. If you obtain this form some time before applying, please check that it is still the version which must be used when you are ready to apply.

The fee - please note that, with effect from 9 April 2009, the specified fee for an application for a certificate of approval (COA) for marriage or civil partnership is suspended. Anyone applying on or after that date will not be required to pay a fee while the specified fee is suspended.

Applications on this form may only be made by post to the following address:

UK Border Agency
COA
PO Box 504
Durham

WORKING TOGETHER TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC
CONTACT DETAILS: COA

As stated on the front page of the application form, the specified application fee of £295 is suspended with effect from 9 April 2009. As a result, no payment is required if you apply on or after that date and while the specified fee remains suspended.

Although the fee is suspended, applications made on this form will still be received by the contractor employed by UK Border Agency to process fee payments, and the details below are required to enable them to fulfil their responsibilities.

Please complete in block capitals and black ink.

1  Contact address in the UK - this should be the contact address in the UK for any correspondence. If it is not your home address (eg a solicitor or other authorised immigration adviser may be submitting the application), give the contact name at 4.

1.14 Your e-mail address if you have one

1.15 Name and address in the UK for all correspondence about your application if different from 1.12

1.16 If you have completed 1.15 and the address is that of your immigration adviser, please state their Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC) number

Photographs
You must provide two identical photographs of yourself with your full name on the back of each one. Please place the photographs, together with those of your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner, in a small sealed envelope and attach it across this space with a staple or paper clip at the right-hand side of the page/envelope. Please make sure that the staple or paper clip does not damage or mark the photographs. All photographs must be as specified in the separate UKBA photograph guidance.
SECTION 2 - YOUR FIANCÉ(E) OR PROPOSED CIVIL PARTNER

2.1 Full name of your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner as shown in passport or travel document

2.2 Surname or family name

2.3 Any other name(s) by which he/she is or has been known

2.4 Date of birth

2.5 Nationality (see Note 1 below)

2.6 Place of birth - town or city and country

Note 1 If your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner was born in the UK on or after 1 January 1983, they are not necessarily British by birth. If they do not have a British passport or evidence that they have been granted indefinite leave to enter or remain in the UK, they will have to provide the following to establish their immigration status:

- a full birth certificate showing both parents’ names, and evidence of their parents’ nationality or immigration status at the time of their birth; and
- their parents’ marriage certificate if they are relying on their father’s immigration or nationality status.

The acceptance of any such evidence for the purposes of this application does not amount to a formal determination of your fiancé(e)’s or proposed civil partner’s nationality. Further information about British nationality can be found on our website at www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk

2.7 Full address of your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner

2.8 Their UK daytime telephone number

2.9 If your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner lives in the UK, how long has he or she lived here?

2.10 If he or she is subject to immigration control, is he or she also applying for a COA?

2.11 If he or she was born in the UK on or after 1.1.83, are you providing evidence of their immigration status as specified in Note 1 above?

2.12 If he or she lives outside the UK and is subject to immigration control, is he or she obtaining a fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner visa? See Note 2.

Note 2 Please note that before you can be issued with a certificate of approval, we will need to see your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner’s passport. You should therefore arrange for it to be sent to our Croydon address (see part 12 of the guidance notes) as soon as possible after their arrival in the UK with a fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner visa.

SECTION 3 - WHICH CATEGORY?

Please tick a box below to show us the category in which you are applying.

Certificate of approval for marriage in the UK

Certificate of approval for civil partnership in the UK
SECTION 4 - YOUR PRESENT IMMIGRATION STATUS

4.1 Tick one of the boxes below to indicate your current immigration status.

I have been granted leave to enter or remain in the UK for more than 6 months and have at least 3 months of that leave still remaining, ie leave that meets the COA criteria.

Other - if you tick this box, it suggests that you do not have leave which meets the COA criteria as described above. Please state your current immigration status in the box below and give any factors which you would like us to consider in deciding your application. Continue on a separate sheet if necessary and enclose it with this form.

SECTION 5 - ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS

5.1 Have you been married or in a civil partnership before? Yes No

5.2 Has your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner been married or in a civil partnership before? Yes No

5.3 Are you free to marry or to enter into a civil partnership? Yes No

5.8 If your application for a COA is granted, do you intend to apply for permission to remain in the UK on the basis of your relationship with your partner after getting married or entering into a civil partnership? If not, please state what you intend to do. Continue on a separate sheet if necessary and enclose it with this form.
SECTION 7 - DOCUMENTS

You must provide the documents listed below which are relevant to your application. If you do not, we reserve the right to decide your application on the basis of the information and documents provided. Tick the relevant boxes to show the documents you are providing. They must be originals.

Please note that in some cases, we may have to ask for other documents in addition to those specified in this form.

- Your current passport, travel document or other document (if you do not have a passport or travel document) showing your immigration status. If you last entered the UK on a previous passport, travel document or other document, please provide this document if you have it.

- Your identity card for foreign nationals if you have been issued with one since entering the UK. See Note 4.

- Your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner’s current passport, travel document, European identity card (if he or she is an EEA national), or other document showing their current immigration status if he or she does not have a passport, travel document or European ID card.

- Your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner’s identity card for foreign nationals if they have been issued with one since entering the UK. See Note 4.

Note 4  Identity cards have been issued to certain foreign nationals since 25 November 2008 when they have been given permission to remain in the UK.

- A notarised copy of your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner’s passport, travel document or European ID card if he or she is a British citizen or EEA national and has to travel outside the UK at the time you submit your application and you are unable to supply the original document.

- The full birth certificate of your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner if he or she is a British citizen and does not hold a British passport. A full birth certificate is one showing the parents’ names. See Note 1 on page 5 for more information about birth in the UK.

- Evidence that you are free to marry or enter into a civil partnership if you have been married or in a civil partnership before. If you are providing divorce certificate(s) or other evidence in a language other than English, you must provide certified translations, together with the original document(s).

- Evidence that your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner is free to marry or enter into a civil partnership if your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner has been married or in a civil partnership before. If you are providing divorce certificate(s) or other evidence in a language other than English, you must provide certified translations, together with the original document(s).
SECTION 8 - DECLARATION

You and your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner must now read the declarations below and sign them. They must be signed by you (the applicant) and your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner and not by a representative or other person acting on your behalf. If you are under 18, your parent or guardian may sign.

The applicant

I hereby apply for a certificate of approval for marriage / to enter into a civil partnership (delete as appropriate). The information I have given in this form is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge.

I confirm that the photographs submitted with this form are a true likeness of myself and my fiancé(e) / proposed civil partner (delete as appropriate) as named on the back of each photograph and that I have had the opportunity to see the UK Border Agency (UKBA) photograph guidance.

I confirm that if, before this application is decided, there is a material change in my circumstances or new information relevant to this application becomes available, I will inform UKBA.

I understand that all information provided by me to UKBA will be treated in confidence but that it may be disclosed to other government departments, agencies, local authorities, the police, foreign governments and other bodies for immigration purposes, and to enable them to perform their functions. I also understand that, if such bodies provide UKBA with any information about me which may be relevant for immigration purposes, it may be used in reaching a decision on my application.

I understand that my details may in certain circumstances be passed to fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering. I am also aware that such agencies may provide UKBA with information about me. And I note that the UKBA website contains details explaining when information may be passed to or from fraud prevention agencies and how that information may be used.

I understand that documents provided in support of this application will be checked for authenticity; and that false documents will be retained and may result in my application being refused and in my prosecution and subsequent removal from the United Kingdom.

I understand that UKBA may also use the information provided by me for training purposes.

I am aware that it is an offence to make a statement or representation which I know to be false or do not believe to be true, or to obtain or to seek to obtain a certificate of approval for marriage or civil partnership in the United Kingdom by means which include deception.

FINAL CHECKS

To ensure that your application is complete, please make the following final checks. Tick each box that is relevant to your application.

Is COA the right form for you and is it valid for use? See date and notes on front page.

Have you completed the form as required?

Have you provided your current passport or travel document and all other relevant documents specified in section 7 and are they originals?

Have you and your fiancé(e) or proposed civil partner signed and dated the declaration in section 8?

Have you ticked a box in section 3 to show the category in which you are applying?

Have you provided the photographs specified in section 6 and are they in the approved format?

If you are unable to send us any of the documents specified in section 7 which are relevant to your application, or if you are unable to provide originals, have you given an explanation and said when you will be able to send them?

Finally, please make sure that the application is addressed exactly as shown below if you are posting it.
