

- January 1997 - Managing Operations Course - Bramshill.
 - August 1997 - Management of Series and Serious Crime - Bramshill. This course involved presentations and practical exercises on the management of major crimes. An element also included the management of a linked series of crime.
 - September 1997 - Managing People - Bramshill.
16. In [REDACTED] 1998 I was transferred to [REDACTED] as Head of CID. There I had responsibility for the investigation of all crime within the Division. Prior to the murder of Mrs Nelson in 1999 I had investigated a number of serious incidents including murder and acted as SIO/Deputy SIO. Relevant courses included:-
- June 1998 - Managing Finance - Northern Ireland.
 - January 1999 - Structured Interview Techniques - Northern Ireland.
17. Courses attended during the course of the murder investigation included: -
- June 2000 - Human Rights Training - Northern Ireland.
 - March 2002 - SIO Legal Module - Northern Ireland.
 - April 2002 - Human Rights Attestation - Northern Ireland.
 - September 2002 - SIO Intelligence Module - Northern Ireland.
 - April 2003 - Obtaining and Using Evidence Lawfully under RIPA; White Paper Company, London