Dear Ronnie

ROSEMARY NELSON - ALLEGATIONS OF HARASSMENT

Thank you for your letter of 2 July about this case.

I understand that you have since discussed the issues with Joe Pilling and John Steele, and that the next step is for you to agree the Terms of Reference for Commander Mulvihill's inquiry with Commander Mulvihill and GERALYN McNALLY.

I should be grateful if, once that meeting has taken place (and I understand it is planned for the end of this month) you would furnish me with a report on the outcome.

I understand from John Steele that we share the view that the current members of the ICPC, which has already stated firm views, could not supervise an inquiry into the conduct of the original investigation and that if it is to be supervised, you would prefer a member of the Police Complaints Authority to do so. In order for such a person to be appointed I would have to appoint him or her to the ICPC for that purpose, for a finite period. As this might take a little time, a prompt report on your meeting would be helpful.
