

complaints of police harassment RNI 230.039-040. This letter would have undergone the same handling process as other correspondence. A submission from Police Division would have been sent to Private Office with a draft letter responding to the Chief Inspector. Once the Minister had approved the draft response, a Private Secretary would sign it and arrange for its issue. I do not recall any meetings with Chief P146 Inspector , nor did I have any input or involvement in John Steele's review of the matter.
