

[REDACTED] In the circumstances I can find nothing in the actions of DC P 149 [REDACTED] which merits any criticism at all.

There is no substantive evidence in relation to the criminal counts or the disciplinary process.

9. Recommendations of Investigating Officer.

In view of the above observations and those in the report of ACC Stewart, especially in the absence of any independent corroborative evidence in support of the allegations

- I recommend 'No Prosecution' against any police officer.
- I recommend 'No Disciplinary Proceedings' against any police officer.
