

STATEMENT OF BRIAN LOUGHRAN, [REDACTED]

I was lifted by the police about 2 weeks ago and taken to Gough Barracks. Two special branch men interviewed me and one said, that Rosemary got a bad deal out of life. She must have been hit with an ugly stick about ten times.

He then said it was as well I had not been lifted during halloween as Rosemary would have been out on her broom stick and I wouldn't have got her down.

Also, about three years ago I was also being questioned in Gough Barracks and I was asked what I was using Rosemary Nelson for as she did all the provos.
