STATEMENT OF: Tom CusackCONTINUATION PAGE NO: 2

was at the top of Ballyoran Park. Police put a line of officers across from a bungalow to a row of houses and this was preventing people from going to mass. The police actually said, "Take to the fields." There were about 20 - 30 police at this position. Three or four of them around the police woman and including her were shouting abuse. There was no assault at this point. I heard the police woman shout, "Away back to Lurgan you beast, you." The other police were shouting things like, "You whore you." One of the police beside the police woman was about 6' tall. I would know him if I saw him. There seemed to be someone behind the police line shouting keep your line. I didn't see him. I made my statement dated 31 July 1997 at the office of Mrs Nelson and did so as a result of my indignation and disgust at the police action at Garvaghy Road and area that day ie: 6 July 1997.
