ANNEX A

ROSEMARY NELSON

Case One - Complaints by Lawyers Alliance for Justice, Colin Duffy and Rosemary Nelson

(a) Threats against Ms Nelson's life

- all documentary evidence has been obtained
- all of 16 officers have been interviewed

(b) Irregularities in procedures in the investigation of the case of Colin Duffy

ICPC statement in respect of both complaints planned to be issued on Friday. ICPC not happy with both investigations.

Case Two - Allegation of Assault on the Garvaghy Road July 1997

Rosemary Nelson's allegation of assault by the RUC on the Garvaghy Road on 6 July, being supervised by the ICPC. Initially she did not attend for interview in relation to the investigation on this case. We understand she has since said she will co-operate.

Case Three - Allegation of Threat to Life

Ms Nelson has been asked to attend on 15 July 1998 for interview about a complaint by a client, Mr McCrory, who alleges that when he was arrested on 15 December 1997 the arresting officers said in the police car that Nelson "won't help you this time, she won't be here much longer".

Case Four

We understand from the police that Ms Nelson has just written in reactivating a further "four or five" year old case. We have no other details at present.
