

B147 reference Number (contd.)	Details of Allegation	Investigating Officer (X) = supervised investigation
		alleged or suspected and that the commission of an offence is not apparent from the evidence. The file is returned without any direction being given.' Application for Regulation 17 (incapable of investigation) to ICPC on 6/3/97. ICPC, on 21/4/98, write to Rosemary Nelson stating that they will now supervise the investigation (Ms McNally as supervisor). (X) 21 April 1998, ICPC write to ACC 'G' informing of decision to (now) supervise the investigation and requesting an Investigating Officer attached to a division other than Armagh be appointed. Due to ICPC's request, and given that the existing IO (C/Insp [redacted] was no longer in C&D, C/Insp Oliver (Lisnasharragh - Team 'D') was appointed as IO. (See correspondence at Annex 'D') To date Ms Nelson has not made herself available for interview.

2. Additional Material not contained on HQ's copy files, revealed following liaison with C/Insp P 146 and perusal of working papers at 'G' Dept. Gough

- Letter from ICPC supervisor Ms McNally to C/Inspector P 146 dated 23 October 1997 and related replies and follow-up correspondence (Annex 'E');