

6. These investigations will be supervised by Ms Geralyn McNally of the ICPC under the terms of Article 9(3)(a) of the Police (NI) Order 1987. Ms McNally has approved your appointment as Investigating Officer in these matters.

7. You will review the original RUC investigations into matters, 1, 2 and 3 above. If at any stage you conclude that this aspect requires separate or independent investigation or should be investigated by another officer you will draw this to my immediate attention. Alternatively you will report with any recommendations you feel are appropriate in this regard.

8. You will provide a report via the ICPC for consideration by the Director of Public Prosecutions to consider whether any criminal offences have been disclosed.

9. You will provide a report for consideration as to whether any disciplinary offences have been disclosed.

10. You will provide a report if there are recommendations you wish to make regarding any aspect of policy or procedure in this area.

11. Nothing in these terms of reference should be construed as any constraint upon you investigating any matter coming to your attention as a result of your enquiries.

P. ANAGAN
Chief Constable

Commander Mulvihill OSM
Specialist Operations (Crime)
New Scotland Yard