Today at 12.50pm I attended the offices of the ICPC, Belfast where I was met by DCI [REDACTED] and DS Neligan of the Metropolitan Police. Also present during this meeting was Jennifer Mitchell of the ICPC. This meeting was in relation to a complaint I have made against officers of the RUC. DCI [REDACTED] has read over to me a statement I made on September 16th 1997 to Chief Inspector P 146 and a copy of which had been supplied to me on my arrival by the ICPC. I have nothing further to add or change except that on page 3 of the typed copy; lines 7 to 10 which says "He's the only Detective I'm referring to and I'm talking about the conversation which my client alleged took place in the corridor". I would like to say that it was not my client who alleged that this conversation took place in the corridor it was in fact police officers who alleged this. Apart from this I am happy with the content and accuracy of this statement. The ICPC also supplied me with a typed copy of my statement which I made on 25 June 1997 to Sergeant [REDACTED] DCI [REDACTED] has read this over to me and I am happy with the content and accuracy of it. I do not wish to change, add or subtract anything from it. I have been asked about the times that I have referred to in my statement dated 16.09.97. I would like to say they are not from memory but from records which I had made at the time. I am willing to supply these records to the investigating officers. Rosemary NELSON
