

6. Other evidence (Details of documentary/forensic evidence and comment on relevance).

Attempts were made to obtain the itemised telephone billings for Gough Police Office on 24th June 1997 for the period 21.00 to 22.00 to corroborate the various timings in the police documents and statements, some of which are at variance to those of Mrs Nelson.

The relevant times are;

21.15 phone call to Mrs Nelson's house and conversation.
21.25 phone call to Mrs Nelson's house
21.32 phone call to Mrs Nelson's house
21.35 phone call to Mrs Nelson's house
21.42 disputed phone call to Mrs Nelson's house and conversation.

As recently as 18th January 1998 the result of these enquires was obtained by Detective Superintendent [REDACTED] (C&D, RUC). The result showed that at 21.40hrs on the 24th June 1997 a call was made from Gough Holding Centre to Mrs Nelson's home (Tel [REDACTED]) and that the duration of the call was 27 seconds. (see 'Other Documents' pages 20 - 21).

There is no other additional evidence to that contained in the original report by ACC Stewart.

7. Interview(s) of police involved (after caution).

The following officers were interviewed at Lisnasharragh Police Office on the dates shown, with the persons stated present. All the interviews were in two sections incorporating a criminal investigation (PACE) interview followed by a taped disciplinary interview. All but one officer (DC Walker) agreed for their answers given in the criminal interview to be adopted for disciplinary proceedings. Transcripts for each interview have been prepared and are produced by DI Marshall as shown. Copies are contained in the 'Documentary Exhibits' section of this report.

These were in addition to the interviews conducted during the initial investigation and contained in the report by ACC Stewart.

Detective Chief Superintendent [REDACTED]

He was the Senior CID officer on duty on the evening of 24.6.97. He authorised the interview of Mr Duffy in the absence of his solicitor, having liaised with DI [REDACTED] (now DCI).

He was interviewed on 12th November 1998 by myself and DI Marshall. Also present were DCI [REDACTED] and Ms McNally (ICPC).
Transcript exhibit DJM/19T