Major Training Areas have dry training areas, live fire training areas and ranges that can operate concurrently. They also have fully serviced camp accommodation.

Minor Training Areas may comprise dry training areas and ranges but they may not operate concurrently. Accommodation is not normally available.