Welcome

This guide includes handy tips to help you get to your event and make the most of your Olympic experience. So have a good read – and don't forget to bring it on the day!

Arriving at the venue

Aim to arrive at Greenwich Park early – gates will open two hours before your session starts.

When you get there, you'll be asked to go through airport-style security screening. With thousands of people arriving at the same time, there may be a queue.

One soft-sided bag is allowed per person – for example, a medium-sized handbag or small backpack (maximum 25 litres).

We want everyone to have a safe and enjoyable Games, so there are some things you can't bring into the venue. Go to london2012.com/security for the full list, which includes water and other liquids.

Got a ticket for the Eventing dressage on 28 or 29 July? You're more than welcome to leave the venue and walk the cross-country course – just allow extra time to go through security again on re-entry. On all other days, there's no readmission to the venue.

Games Mobility

Inside the venue you can use our free Games Mobility service, which loans out mobility vehicles on a first come, first served basis. Audio description and guiding are also available. Find out more at london2012.com/accessibility

Top tips

1 Check the London 2012 website for the latest information before you travel

2 Remember your tickets! Everyone needs a ticket for entry

3 Aim to arrive early – gates will open two hours before your session starts

4 The transport system and venue will be very busy so leave plenty of time to travel and be prepared to wait

5 You'll need to go through airport-style security when you arrive so make sure you've read the list of items that aren't allowed inside the venue at london2012.com/security

6 Your bag must fit under your seat or on your lap. If you can manage without one, even better – it will help speed up security checks

7 There's a wide variety of healthy and tasty food inside the venue

8 You can pay by Visa (debit, credit or prepaid) or cash (£) only

9 There is limited shelter at the venue so check the weather forecast and come prepared, whether that means bringing a sun hat or rain jacket – we are in the UK after all!

10 It may take a while to exit the venue after your session – why not explore the beautiful Greenwich Park, home to the National Maritime Museum and the Royal Observatory? After leaving the park, avoid the queues at local stations by visiting the historic centres of Greenwich or Blackheath

Plan your travel

Getting to Greenwich Park

Great news! You can use the Games Travelcard sent to you with your ticket for free travel on public transport in London zones 1–9 on the day of your event, including to and from Greenwich Park. The recommended stations are:

- Greenwich  – around 20-minute walk
- Maze Hill  – around 10-minute walk (for Kent services only)
- Blackheath  – around 20-minute walk

Or why not take the scenic route and go by boat? Your Games Travelcard entitles you to one-third off the cost of river services. From Greenwich Pier it's about a 15-minute walk to the venue.

London will be very busy so leave plenty of time to get to the venue and be prepared for crowds. Plan and book your journey at london2012.com/travel and check it before you set off as things may change. You'll also find plenty of walking and cycling routes on the website.

Been to Greenwich Park before? The area will be operating differently during the Games so please follow the signs and directions from staff.

There is no spectator parking at or near the venue, except for pre-booked Blue Badge spaces.

For days when you're not going to a London 2012 sports event or ceremony, beat the queues for travel tickets and buy a Visitor Oyster card before you leave home at tfl.gov.uk/visitorshop

Accessible travel

If you've already reserved Blue Badge parking, you'll receive details in the post soon. For more information, go to london2012.com/bluebadge

Greenwich is the recommended station with step-free access and staff assistance available. An accessible shuttle service will run from Greenwich station to the venue. Greenwich Pier also has step-free access.

Eventing

Featuring dressage, cross-country and a dramatic jumping finale, Eventing offers an all-encompassing test of horsemanship. The competition takes place over four days and includes both Individual and Team events.

Dressage fills the first two days of the competition, while the third day is given over to cross-country, held over a tough but beautiful course featuring up to 45 jumps. The jumping offers a grandstand finish on the final day of competition.

Dressage

The Dressage events test the ability of horse and rider to display both athletic prowess and supreme elegance. Horse and rider perform a series of movements in an arena 60 metres long and 20m wide. A panel of seven judges awards scores for individual movements and overall routine.

The Dressage competition consists of a Team event and an Individual event. The events are conducted simultaneously, and a rider's score in a test may be counted in both events. The individual event concludes with an additional freestyle test performed to music.

Jumping

Held in an arena around a short course containing 12-14 fences, Jumping features both Individual and Team events and requires huge reserves of boldness, accuracy and nerves of steel from both riders and their horses.

There is a total of five rounds in the Jumping competition. Two of these are used to determine the placings in the Team event, with all five rounds playing a part in the Individual event.

While you're watching

Please keep noise levels down during competition and respect the park – it is part of a World Heritage Site and home to protected animals, rare grasslands and fragile trees.

Flash photography is not permitted.
