

Security Industry Authority

News Alert

For the attention of: Targeted News Desks

Date: 2 September 2008

No of pages: 01

Ref: NA34/08

Private Investigation and Precognition Agents Interim Report Published

Today, the Security Industry Authority (SIA) has published an interim Impact Assessment, which contains further information about the Government's proposals to license private investigation activities and precognition agents.

The interim Impact Assessment confirms Ministers' intention to develop competency-based licensing, subject to the agreement of the necessary Orders by Parliament.

The interim Impact Assessment is available on the SIA website:
http://www.the-sia.org.uk/home/about_sia/publications/publications_ria.htm

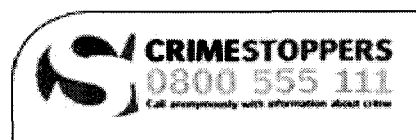

Notes to Editors:

1. The Home Office will publish the final Impact Assessment at the same time as the relevant Orders are laid before Parliament.
2. www.the-sia.org.uk

Media enquiries only please contact:

Jessica Clinkett
020 7025 4182
Jessica.Clinkett@the-sia.org.uk

We are committed to the Regulators' Compliance Code, a statutory code of practice for regulators that promotes a risk-based, proportionate and targeted approach.

Partnering with Crimestoppers to reduce crime and promote compliance